ABOUT US:

Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce is one of the leading higher educational institutions permanently affiliated to University of Mumbai situated in Chembur area of eastern suburb of Mumbai City. The College was established in the year 1986 by the members of Sree Narayana Mandira Samiti (SNMS), a registered educational and charitable trust formed by devotees of Sree Narayana Guru, the legendary saint and social reformer from Kerala to perpetuate his memory and teachings. One of the revolutionary message “Gain Freedom through Education” is a clarion call given by Sree Narayana Guru to millions of enslaved, oppressed and illiterate poor masses to attain Liberty, Equality and Fraternity.

The College enrolls students for 10 undergraduate programmes such as B Com, BBI, BAF, BMM, BMS, B Sc (IT), BFM, BIM, BTM, BEM and 3 Post Graduate programmes - M Com (Accountancy), M. Com (Management) and M. Com (Banking & Insurance). It also offers various add on, certificate and diploma programmes. The College has a good Library and Information Centre, computer laboratories and indoor and outdoor sports facilities in its premises.

The College gives equal importance to Cocurricular, extracurricular and sports activities. It always motivates its teaching community to attend conferences, to take research projects and to publish research articles in journals. In order to contribute to the growth of higher education, the College regularly conduct seminars in its premises.

The College is moving a step ahead to enhance the standard, quality and excellence in the field of libraries of higher education and in this process we are now organizing a International level conference on “Emerging Issues in Quality Aspects of Modernization of the Higher Education”.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE:

Quality is the very lifeblood of any facets of the higher education in achieving laid down objectives. As it helps in developing issues in learner centric teaching & library management from time to time. It is a pre requisite for a dynamic growth of higher education sector. Developments in teaching & library management have marched on to its present form with the help of constant adaptation of quality issues all the time.

With establishment of the NAAC by UGC for constantly maintaining quality issues in all aspects of higher education sector in the Country, constantly it is providing parameters to maintain quality issues in teaching & library management also. With advancements in Communication Technologies leads to Information Explosion which has posed newer challenges in teaching & libraries to maintain quality issues. 21st Century clearly shows emergence of various information platforms of Internet Technology. Constant usage of Computers and the Internet has radically transformed the storage and dissemination of information leading to open up new challenges in maintaining quality aspects in teaching & libraries.

OBJECTIVES OF THE CONFERENCE:

The objectives of the conference are to bring close together various related aspects of the main theme of the conference. The conference will provide platform to bring about initiatives in the field covering the practical applications in lieu of present and perspective. The deliberations of the conference is expected to create awareness about various related facets in the field.

Our initiative in organizing this International conference on “Emerging Issues in Quality Aspects of Modernization of Higher Education” is an endeavor to contribute towards growth of knowing more about our teaching & library fraternity and also for others interested in maintaining quality aspects for a better tomorrow. We sincerely hope that, the output of this conference would be instrumental in building up the required issues related to the theme among participants and creates the required awareness about the importance of the different facets in this field. We invite academicians and interested people to this event so as to exchange thoughts which will help in developing the required quality aspects.
